

The Durango & Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad is seeking a Machinist /Mechanic for our mechanical department.

Work experience requirements:

- 1+ years Manual machining experience
- Knowledge of the working properties of common materials
- Ability to read, communicate and understand written English
- Ability to read/interpret blueprints
- Must have ability to work in confined spaces
- Must have physical ability/agility to climb, crawl, stoop, and bend in the performance of assigned tasks
- Work afternoon and weekends and in outdoor environments if required
- Must be able to fluently read and speak English
- Must be able to produce precision parts from a variety of materials
- Must interpret blue prints and instruction manuals
- Must be knowledgeable in job related materials, materials, methods, and standard practices of the machinist's trade

Other Requirements :

- High School Diploma or equivalent
- Successfully pass background check
- Successfully pass pre-employment drug screen
- Successful completion of a Physical Capabilities Evaluation
- Ability to work independently on tasks with minimal instruction

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Manufacture and repair all necessary parts and components relating to steam and diesel locomotives as required, while working in a team environment
- Inspect, evaluate, and recommend repair/replacement of locomotive parts and components
- Making standard shop computations relating to dimensions of work, tooling, feeds, and speeds of machining
- Machine metal, brass, cast iron and bronze parts accurately to close tolerances
- Set-up and operate various types of manual machines
- Assemble/disassemble parts and components of steam and diesel locomotives